Costs

This is a self-funded trip, each applicant will need to fund the following:

- Flights and travel insurance to and from American Samoa
- Accommodation at the Competition- approximately $250 per person per day for a minimum of 4 days, this account is set by United World Wrestling.
- 2021 United World Wrestling Licence- approximately $160
- Entry Fee per division- approximately $160

Once a person has been approved to attend the 2021 Oceania Championships payments for accommodation, UWW 2021 licence and entry fee must be made by the 15th December 2020.

Entry into American Samoa/COVID-19

Attendance at the event is subject to the Australian Government permitting overseas travel. At present the borders to American Samoa are closed due to COVID-19, Wrestling Australia cannot be certain when this will change.

As more information is received this will be communicated to those that put in an Expression of Interest to attend the event.

Expressions of Interest

As the Oceania Championships require travel to different countries, there are additional risks, primarily financial risks, risks of a different level of medical care, and the risk of being quarantined overseas.

Please carefully consider your position before accepting these risks by submitting your Expression of Interest

All expressions of interest must be returned on the below form and returned to admin@wrestling.com.au along with the completed competitions history form and the waiver by 31st October 2020.
