- Cadet Female- 40/43/46/49/53/57/61/65/69/73kgs

Costs

This is a self-funded trip; each applicant will need to fund the following:

- Flights and travel insurance to and from Hungary
- Quarantine on returning to Australia (if required)
- Accommodation at the Competition- approximately $290 per person per day for a minimum of 4 days, this amount is set by United World Wrestling.
- 2021 United World Wrestling Licence- approximately $170
- Entry Fee per division- approximately $170
- Wrestling Australia Uniform (if required)
- If three or more athletes attend the same event the costs associated with a referee attending the event will be split evenly between the attending athletes. This will include costs associated with referee's airfares, hotel, and quarantine.

Expressions of Interest

As the 2021 Cadet World Championships require travel to different countries, there are additional risks, primarily financial risks, risks of a different level of medical care, and the risk of being quarantined overseas.

All participants will be asked to sign a code of conduct and a waiver before they will be entered into the competition.

Please carefully consider your position before accepting these risks by submitting your expression of interest.

Please complete the below table and return to admin@wrestling.com.au along with the completed competition history form by the 3rd of May 2021.
