Protocol and Process Guide for Nominations of the Award of: Life Memberships of Wrestling Australia

Life Membership

The sole and primary objectives for awarding a Wrestling Australia Life Membership is;

“To publicly recognise and honour the outstanding dedications, loyalty, service and/or contribution that an individual has made over a period of time or as a result of a significant milestone and/or achievement to Wrestling in Australia”.

Life Memberships Categories

It is recognised that many individuals give countless hours of their time, unquestionable loyalty and a dedicated service to Wrestling in Australia in a number of different roles. Wrestling Australia acknowledges that without these dedicated people, the sport of Wrestling cannot and could not prosper and would not have provided these basic enjoyments to the community and Australia.

In recognition of these dedicated people, Wrestling Australia has created two categories of Life Membership-

- a Gold Life Membership, and
- a Silver Life Membership

to ensure that all appropriate servants of Wrestling are included, recognised, and honoured in the most respectful manner.

Nomination

All nominations must be made on the Wrestling Australia approved form- included with this guide. All relevant sections must be completed and no other form or nominations shall be acceptable.

Process for nomination

- The Membership Nomination Form must be submitted by the person making the nomination.
- The nomination must include a detailed history of the Service that the nominated person has made to Wrestling according to the appropriate category listed above, and the actual and detailed contribution and specific accomplishments achieved by the individual.
- The completed form must be received by the Wrestling Australia Board no later than 30 days prior to the date of the AGM.
- The individual’s nomination must be endorsed by at least two thirds of those representatives entitled to vote at the relevant AGM.
- There is no limit to the number of times an individual may be nominated.

Benefits of Gold Life Membership
