President

The President is responsible for the leadership of Wrestling Australia. The President plays a crucial role in creating the conditions for overall board and individual board member effectiveness and ensures construction relations between board members and staff.

The President must be committed to Wrestling in Australia and understand the scope of energy and time required to effectively do the job.

The President's role and responsibilities include:

- Setting the agenda and ensuring board members receive timely and clear information
- Managing Board meetings
- Communicate with key stakeholders, such as Australian Olympic Committee, Australian Commonwealth Games Association and Sports Australia
- Communicate with United World Wrestling
- Board member development and encouragement
- Complete performance assessments of Board Members
- Attend High Performance meetings as needed
- Act as an ambassador and spokesperson for the wrestling community
- To be involved in Budget and Policy planning and decisions

The President may delegate certain aspects of their authority but remains accountable for the action of the delegate.

The President is bound by the board's governance policies and decisions and has no authority to alter, amend or ignore these. The position of President may only exercise the powers delegated to the position by the WAL constitution and the WAL Board.
